(b.) To utilize such competitions and contests as a means of advertising and making known the products of other persons, associations, companies, or partnerships, and to enter into agreements and arrangements with them, or any of them, in that behalf:

(c.) To employ and use any and all necessary or desirable means of making such competitions and contests known to the public, whether by advertisement, publication, and distribution of leaflets, circulars, folders, books, magazines, journals, periodicals, newspapers, or otherwise:

(d.) To carry on a general advertising and publicity business in all its branches, both as principals and agents, and to acquire and operate franchises or privileges for advertising purposes, or for buying or selling of advertising rights, franchises, or privileges, and to deal in all other articles or things of a character similar or analogous to the foregoing or any of them or connected therewith:

(e.) To buy, sell, manufacture, and deal generally as printers, publishers, stationers, engravers, designers, booksellers, and proprietors and publishers of newspapers, magazines, periodicals, literary works, and publications and printed and illustrated matter of all kinds and descriptions, and to engage generally in the art, trade, and business of photographic printing, photo-engraving, lithographing, and all other modes of producing and reproducing printing, engraving, drawings, paintings, pictures, puzzles, conundrums, and representations and impressions of all kinds, in colour or otherwise:

(f.) To buy, sell, manufacture, or otherwise acquire, mortgage, hypothecate, assign, transfer, exchange, export and import, deal in, let for hire, repair, alter, improve, assemble, clean, store, warehouse, and invest in all or any kinds of personal property of every class and description, either wholesale or retail, or both, and to enter into any contract with any party or parties to have the aforesaid purposes fulfilled:

(g.) To buy, sell, lease, deal in, and hold real and personal estate within the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and to use same for any purpose in its business and to turn same to account; to sell, convey, mortgage, lease, and sublet or otherwise dispose of or hypothecate the same or any part thereof or any interest therein:

(h.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of a business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, and as consideration for the same to pay cash or give shares, or to enter into any obligations or agreements for deferred payments as the Company may think fit:

(i.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing of profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company, wheresoever incorporated, carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company:

(j.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, copyrights, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(k.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company, wheresoever incorporated, having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company:

(l.) To lend money on security or otherwise, or to borrow or raise money for any legitimate purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest to mortgage or otherwise hypothecate the undertakings or all or any part of the property of the Company, present or after acquired:

(m.) To draw, make, endorse, accept, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, cheques, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warehouse receipts, debentures, bonds, warrants, and other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(n.) To distribute among the shareholders of the Company, in kind, specie, or otherwise, as may be resolved, by way of dividend, bonus, or in any other manner deemed advisable, any property or assets of the Company or any proceeds of the sale or disposal of any property of the Company, and in particular any shares, bonds, debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of or in any other company belonging to this Company or which it may have power to dispose of:

(o.) To enter into any arrangements with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authorities any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(p.) To procure the Company to be registered and recognized in any foreign country or place, and to designate persons therein, according to the laws of such foreign country or place, to represent the Company, and to accept service for and on behalf of the Company of any process or suit:

(q.) To execute, carry out, and generally do those acts and enter into any such necessary agreements, contracts, deeds, instruments, and other things of any description whatsoever as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them; to do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and either as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others, and either by or through agents, contractors, or otherwise.

(17.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and to use, grant licences or rights in respect of, or otherwise turn to account, patents, patent rights, licences, concessions, trade-marks, secret processes (British, Canadian, and foreign) as to any invention, improvements, or process which may be considered conducive to the attainment of any of the objects of the Company, or which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company:

(18.) Generally to purchase, take on lease, hire, or otherwise acquire, hold, maintain, and operate any real and personal property, wheresoever situated, and any rights and privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and to sell or otherwise dispose of and turn to account all or any part of the same:

(19.) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, hospitals, stores, shops, and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company, or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions or allowances, and to make grants of land to or for any charitable or benevolent objects or purposes, or for any exhibition, or for any public, religious, general, or useful objects:

(20.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(21.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(22.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to pay for any lands, business, property, rights, privileges, and concessions acquired or agreed to be acquired by the Company, and generally to satisfy any payment by or obligations of the Company, by the issue of shares of this Company or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up, or of debentures or other securities of this or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up:

(23.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial, trading, or other operations or businesses in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may think fit:

(24.) To subscribe for, take, acquire, hold, and sell stocks, shares, debentures, obligations, and securities of any company or any supreme, municipal, public, or local board or authority:

(25.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person, persons, partnership, association, or corporation; to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any person, association, or corporation being customers of or having any dealings with the Company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such person, association, or corporation, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same, and to consolidate with or amalgamate with any other company having objects similar to those of this Company:

(26.) To sell, lease, exchange, surrender, mortgage, or otherwise deal with the whole of the undertaking and property and rights of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any shares (whether credited as partly or fully paid up or otherwise), debentures, or securities of any other company, and to divide such part or parts, as may be determined by the Company, of the purchase-moneys, whether in cash, shares, or other equivalent, which may at any time be received by the Company on a sale of or other dealing with the whole or part of the property, estate, and rights of the Company, amongst the members of the Company by way of dividend or bonus in proportion to their shares or to the amount paid up on their shares, or otherwise to deal with the same as the Company may determine:

(27.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(28.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or to apply to the executive authority for any order for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(29.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's interest, and to obtain from any such Government or authority, or take over from other persons or companies possessed of the same, any rights, privileges, bonuses, or concessions which the Company may think desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(30.) To do all acts and things which may be necessary or desirable in connection with or to procure for the Company a legal recognition, domicile, and status in any colony, state, or territory in which any of its property, estate, effects, or rights may be situated or in which the Company may desire to carry on business, and to appoint local boards or committees, attorneys or agents, with such powers as the directors of the Company may determine, to represent the Company in any such colony, state, or territory:

(31.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and to secure the repayment of money and the interest thereon in such manner and on such terms as the directors may deem expedient, and in particular by the issue of bonds, debentures, or debenture stock charged upon the whole or any part of the undertaking, property, and assets of the Company, present or after acquired, including its uncalled capital:

(32.) To create, issue, make, sell, exchange, hypothecate, or otherwise deal with; draw, accept, endorse, discount, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable bonds, debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, or other negotiable or non-negotiable obligations:

(33.) To distribute any of the assets of the Company among its members in specie:

(34.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital, or guaranteeing any debenture or other securities of the Company in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(35.) To do all or any of the matters aforesaid either as principals or agents, and either in the name of the Company or of any person or company as agent of the Company, and either alone or in concurrence with any person, company, Government, or other body or authority:

(36.) To do all such things as are in the opinion of the directors incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, and so that the word "company" throughout this clause shall be deemed to include any Government, body, authority, partnership, association, or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not, and whether registered or domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere:

(37.) The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company. None of such subclauses or the objects therein specified or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of this clause.

(6.) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, maintain, operate, and improve sawmills, shingle-mills, and other buildings, plant and machinery of every description:

(7.) To construct, acquire, hold, maintain, use, and operate booms, dolphins, dams, aprons, slides, gates, and other works for the purpose of holding, storing, driving, rafting, towing, and all purposes incidental to the reception, safe-keeping, and transmission of timber, sawlogs, and other wood:

(8.) To construct, improve, maintain, develop, work, manage, and operate logging-railways, logging-roads, chutes, works as defined by the "Water Act" of the Province of British Columbia, wharves, piers, and other works and conveniences which the Company may think, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of its objects or powers:

(9.) To clear and remove obstructions from any lake, river, creek, or stream, and to do all things necessary to make the same clear and fit for rafting and driving thereon logs, lumber, rafts or crafts, and for such purposes to blast rocks, deepen channels, remove shoals or other impediments, or otherwise improve the floatability of any river, lake, creek, or stream:

(10.) To enter into agreements with any other company for the transportation of such other company's logs, lumber, equipment, and supplies over any logging-railway, logging-road, chute, or flume constructed by this Company, or for the transportation of this Company's logs, lumber, equipment, and supplies over any logging-railway, logging-road, chute, or flume constructed by such other company, on such terms and for such consideration as may be agreed upon:

(11.) To buy, sell, repair, build, charter, hire, and operate steamers, tugs, barges, scows, ships, and other vessels, and to employ the same in connection with the Company's business:

(12.) To establish, operate, and maintain stores, boarding-houses, restaurants, trading-posts, and to carry on a general mercantile business:

(13.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, or otherwise acquire, sell, dispose of, lease, and deal in real and personal property of all kinds, and in particular lands, buildings, hereditaments, foreshore rights, mines, undertakings, mortgages, and any interest in real and personal property:

(14.) To survey and lay out any lands or foreshore in which the Company has any interest into a townsite or townsites, lots or blocks, and to lay, make, construct, maintain, improve, manage, and work all roads, streets, sidewalks, bridges, sewers, wharves, docks, buildings, works, and conveniences of any and every description as the Company may deem advisable for the development, directly or indirectly, of the Company's property:

(15.) To develop the resources of and turn to account any lands, buildings, mines, timber lands, or other property of the Company for the time being in such manner as the Company may think fit, and in particular by clearing, draining, fencing, subdividing, building, improving, farming, mining, and by promoting immigration, and establishing towns, townsites, and settlements:

(16.) To grant or dedicate lands of the Company to any municipality or to the public as a park or parks for any public or private purposes advantageous to the Company's property:

(17.) To undertake and carry on the business of real-estate agents, financial agents, insurance agents, and estate agents:

(18.) To carry on the business of a waterworks company in all its branches:

(19.) To carry on the business of an electric light company and a power company in all its branches:

(20.) To apply for, obtain, purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire and hold water, water records, water licences, water rights and franchises, and to supply and utilize water for domestic, water-works, steam, fluming, industrial power, clearing streams, and storage purposes or any other purpose for which water may be supplied or utilized:

(21.) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, construct, equip, operate, and maintain water-works, electrical works, generating plant, works as defined by the "Water Act" of the Province of British Columbia, and other appliances and conveniences as are necessary and proper for generating electric or any other form of developed power, or distributing water:

(22.) To have, take, exercise, and enjoy all the rights, powers, privileges, and advantages created, provided by and conferring on all licensees of water, including Class C licensees of water, and power companies by the "Water Act" of the Province of British Columbia or any amendments thereof, or any other Act passed in substitution thereof or as an extension thereof:

(23.) To buy or otherwise acquire and hold, sell, or deal with or in any stocks, shares, securities, or obligations of any Government, authority, corporation, or company which may be considered capable of being profitably held or dealt in or with by the Company:

(24.) To lend money to such persons, firms, or corporations and upon such terms as may be deemed expedient, with power to take security for the repayment of the same or any other indebtedness owing to the Company, and to acquire by purchase or otherwise, any property or assets which may be pledged with the Company as security for such loan or indebtedness, and to resell the same, and to guarantee the contracts of any such person firm or corporation.

None of such subclauses or the objects therein specified or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first or any other subclause of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first or any other subclause of this clause.

The Company has excluded from its memorandum of association clauses (g) and (j) of subsection (1) of section 22 of the "Companies Act."

"PUBLIC INQUIRIES ACT."

WHEREAS I, the undersigned, Denis Murphy, one of His Majesty's Justices of the Supreme Court of British Columbia, of the City of Vancouver, Province of British Columbia, have been appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council as sole Commissioner to inquire as follows:—

First: (a.) To ascertain (or to determine by what means it should be ascertained) who of those now practising as chiropractors in the Province are duly qualified chiropractors within the meaning of the "Medical Act":

(b.) To inquire whether or not any or all of the recognized schools or colleges of chiropractic, within the meaning of the "Medical Act," of which the said duly qualified chiropractors now practising in the Province are graduates, give courses in the subjects required for the practice of chiropractic, which are adequate to protect the public when undergoing from such persons treatment solely confined to the practice of chiropractic:

(c.) To recommend such legislation as may be deemed requisite to provide for the registration of such duly qualified chiropractors now practising in the Province, so that their practice for reward may be legalized when confined solely to chiropractic, and to provide for their control and regulation in the interest of the public:

Second: To recommend in the interests of the public the method of determining the qualifications to permit subsequent applicants to practise chiropractic, including the Board by whom the same shall be determined and the method and the extent of the examinations of such applicants; and in particular whether or not such qualifications shall be determined and examinations set by a Board comprised solely of those duly qualified chiropractors already authorized to practise, or by a Board comprised in part of members of the College of Physicians and Surgeons:

Third: Into the extent and nature of the practice of drugless healing (other than chiropractic) in all its branches, in the Province of British Columbia, and the nature of the legislation which may be necessary or advisable for the purpose of regulating and controlling the registration of drugless healers in the Province of British Columbia, and generally into all matters properly incidental to the foregoing:

I hereby give notice that I will hold the first meeting of the Commission at No 2 Court Room at the Law Courts, Georgia Street, Vancouver, B.C., on Monday, the 30th day of November, 1931, at 10 a.m., instead of on Tuesday, the 24th day of November, 1931, as advertised on page 2388 of the British Columbia Gazette of November 5th, 1931.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring  $10\frac{3}{4}$  inches by  $7\frac{1}{2}$  inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.
Dated May 1st, 1930.
